A ROOFTOP PERCH ABOVE AND BEYOND

The apex experience is The London West Hollywood's rooftop. A place to escape to for contemplative relaxation or poolside socializing.

Climbing wild roses and sweeping city views surround you – in turn, you are surrounded by countless luxuries: the serenity of a private cabana and a tranquil sun-drenched California afternoon, the magnetic pull of firepits at sundown, a snack poolside or specialty cocktail.

As a posh party site, the rooftop offers the exceptional atmosphere of a secret gathering spot framed by L.A., most spectacular, in panorama vision.

Above the world, the al fresco allure of plush lounges, swish cocktails, a pampered lifestyle. This lush retreat is tucked away from the city's intensity, yet you remain at the center of everything.

GASTRONOMIC BLISS FROM RESTAURANT TO SUITE

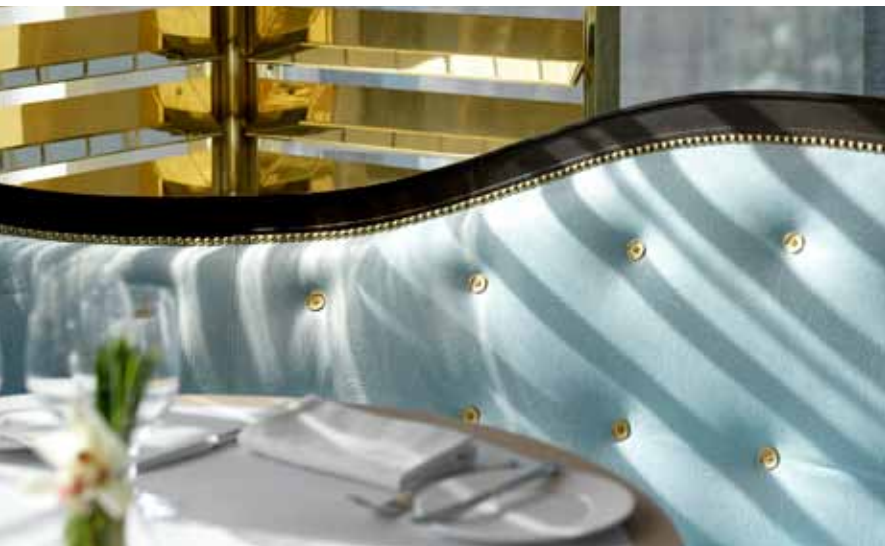

With the acclaimed culinary team of Boxwood overseeing all dining at The London West Hollywood, you can be sure that expectations are consistently exceeded. Culinary bliss and tantalizing flavor weave through the entire hotel from restaurant to meetings and private events to the intimacy of your own suite.

The London West Hollywood's dining is fashioned for the sunny, savvy and social; indeed one of L.A.'s most popular destinations. Dine and mingle with friends and colleagues in the glamorous restaurant or enjoy cocktails in the beautiful London Bar. Or have a more intimate gathering in your suite with specially created in-suite dining menus. It's our pleasure to offer exquisite opportunities to sip smartly and socialize in style at a private dining event, in a plush room, that's yours alone. Culinary excellence extends to the bountiful Breakfast Table, prepared daily – and delightfully – for you, our guest, to enjoy with our compliments.

REINVENTING THE FINE ART OF GATHERING

Your unforgettable backdrop for inspired meetings and private events – with culinary artistry, attuned service, modern sophistication and timeless style. The London West Hollywood, with its perfectly manicured English-style rose gardens of Hampton Court, the elegant and versatile Kensington Ballroom and Rooftop West boasting panoramic views of West Hollywood and the L.A. skyline, offers just such a remarkable venue.

The tasteful, breezy sophistication of Boxwood is wholly unique to us, and accordingly, to your event. Menus are conceived and prepared here, stunningly, for several or several hundred – and serviced knowingly, attentively, discreetly.

Send off your new product, hail a red carpet moment, or simply celebrate in a setting designed with glamour. Our stellar Rooftop West offers an open-air option for movie premiere after-parties and other large-scale events, while our recent debuts, the luxe Metropolitan Suites and The Penthouse inspired by Vivienne Westwood, scale the event more intimately, but the details quite lavishly.

AT LAST, A JUNKET LOCATION ALIGNED WITH THE STARS

Film, television, gaming, sports – L.A. hubs the world’s entertainment industries. The London West Hollywood shines as the luxe epicenter of working Hollywood and its star talent. Centered on the action, in locus and focus alike, an entire floor is given over to launching the best of film and television to global audiences. As architects of this inside line, we’ve included shooting suites, wired to a central control room. Most intriguing, we speak SMPTE fluently, wirelessly, in one of the only fiber optic junket solutions of its kind. In a space well-defined for reception, hospitality, stylists and talent, we have given consideration to floor plans that transform at a moment’s notice, a kitchen to quell cappuccino cravings, dedicated storage and private talent access.

A SCREENING ROOM TO STEAL THE SHOW

Within steps, a private screening room optimally welcomes 110, in plush seats and with Dolby surround sound and 3D. Perfect for both the elite passion project and the promotional release. Pre and post drinks are a breeze, served from an outer salon, while an in-house screening room specialist manages both the entertainment and the entourage.

INDULGENTLY UNITING BODY AND MIND

The manifesto on living at The London West Hollywood devotes an entire chapter to our evolutionary approach to fitness. With its distinct entwining of exercise and well being – of function and form – The London West Hollywood Club re-envisioned the experience by viewing it through a particularly modern, thoroughly urban lens. In a sensory-rich sanctum awash in natural light, a mood quite akin to a traditional private members club unfolds. Generous space for both rigor and relaxation, for state-of-the-art fitness appointments and service, summons a very civilized fitness practice. Be our guest to 24-hour access to a culture of fitness designed to motivate, challenge, and refresh.

THE ALEX ROLDAN SALON

With star power to rival that of its clients, to primp at the hands of the Alex Roldan Salon, is to richly sample celebrity style. Tucked discreetly away from the pulse, offering a professional and personalized atmosphere, this is a secret best shared – a sanctuary for hair, nails, makeup. In the Shop, something you may have forgotten, or something you'll never forget. That Alex Roldan makes his eponymous salon's home here is fitting.
