A ROYAL EXPERIENCE AWAITS YOU AT THE KOVALAM PALACE.

Once a castle of the erstwhile Travancore royal family, the Kovalam Palace is a luxuriously refurbished historical Indian castle-turned-hotel.

With four lavishly designed suites, this renovated Halycon Castle was the summer retreat for the ruling family of the Indian princely state of Travancore.

The Palace has a great tradition of hosting the rich and famous from all over the world including Presidents and Prime Ministers, Paul McCartney, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, HH The Dalai Lama and several celebrities.

Guests can enjoy breathtaking views of the Arabian Sea and a private courtyard. Each suite is named after a royal princess of the Travancore kingdom as well as dedicated to Indian goddesses.

The design incorporates the best of both worlds in creating a unique experience encompassing the heritage and lineage of the royal lifestyle while providing state-of-the-art technology and international standard of living. All suites come with a personal butler. Guests can also avail of all the hotel facilities.
